

RBH Professional Development Institute

Regina Banks-Hall, MBA

Regina Banks-Hall, is the President of RBH Professional Development Institute. She is an internationally published author, professor, trainer, motivational speaker and business strategist. In her professional career she is currently, the Director of Commissary Operations for the Wayne County Sheriff's Office.

Among her many accomplishments, Regina has been recognized by Toastmasters International as a Competent Communicator and Competent Leader. Regina was recently appointed to the Professional Woman Network's (PWN) International Advisory Board. She has also been certified by PWN as a Holistic Life Coach. She holds a Bachelors of Arts Degree in Business Management and Masters Degree in Human Resources Management from Baker College. She will graduate in 2016 with a Doctorate Degree in Organizational Leadership from Walden University.

RBH Professional Development Institute, empowers individuals and corporations with specialized training, customized to help individuals discover their unique gifts and talents for career development, relationships, leadership and life, setting us apart from the competition.

Workshops and seminars conducted by the institute:

- Women in Management
- Female Leadership: Be Bold, Be Brave, Be Yourself
- Don't Wait, Live Your Bucket List Now
- It's Time to Walk Into Your Destiny
- Self Sabotage: Get Out of Your Own Way
- Your Vision, Your Organization – Move Forward

Professional Organizations

- Society of Human Resources Management
- National Black MBA Association
- Toastmasters International
- National Association of Professional Women
- Association for Talent Development
- Professional Woman Network

Books

- Co-author of The Confident Woman: Tapping Into Your Inner Power
- Co-author of The Female Leader: Empowerment, Confidence & Passion
- Co-author of Second Chance Living: Out of the Darkness into the Light
- Fall Forward- Your Purpose is Waiting For You*

Contact Information: websites: www.rbankshall.com and www.regina-gifts.com

Phone: 866-600-6322 Fax: 866-505-2287

Email: rbankshall@gmail.com